

Khartoum, Sudan, July 17 (Infosplusgabon) - Sudanese Vice President Hassabu Mohamed Abdul Rahman left Khartoum on Tuesday for Lusaka at the head of a Sudanese delegation to participate in the two-day summit meeting of the Common Market for East and Southern Africa (COMESA), which opens in the Zambian capital on Wednesday.

He is accompanied by State Foreign Minister Mohamed Abdulla Idriss, State Industry Minister Dr. Abdu Dawood Suleiman and State Minister for Trade Al-Sadek Mohamed Ali, an official announcement said.

FIN/INFOSPLUSGABON/OPL/GABON 2018

© Copyright Infosplusgabon