

CAIRO, Egypt, September 15 (Infosplusgabon) - ☐ Burundi and Sierra Leone on Friday qualified for the second round of the 2018 African Under-20 Women's World Cup Qualifying Tournament without kicking the ball.

While Burundi walked over Rwanda, Sierra Leone walked over Tunisia in two-leg matches supposed to commence on Friday. With these results, two second-leg matches, scheduled for 29 September will no longer take place.

However, the other first-round matches will take place as follows:

South Africa vs Namibia. – First-leg 17Sept and the 2nd leg 1Oct.

Morocco vs Senegal. – First-leg 16Sept and the 2nd leg 30Sept.

Nigeria vs Tanzania. – First-leg 16Sept and the 2nd leg 1Oct.

Guinea vs Cameroon. - First-leg 16Sept and the 2nd leg 29Sept.

Algeria vs Ghana. - First-leg 15Sept and the 2nd leg 29Sept.

Ethiopia vs Kenya. - First-leg 17Sept and the 2nd leg 29Sept.

FIN/INFOSPLUSGABON/ART/GABON 2017

© Copyright Infosplusgabon