| Dimanche, 17 Septembre 2017 17:05 - Mis à jour Dimanche, 17 Septembre 2017 - | 7:07 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|

| CAIRO, Egypt, September 17 (Infosplusgabon) -   Below are results from the first-leg, first-round matches of the 2018 African Under-20 Women's World Cup Qualifying Tournament, played on Friday and Saturday. |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Morocco 2-0 Senegal. – 2nd leg 30Sept.                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Nigeria 3-0 Tanzania. – 2nd leg 1Oct.                                                                                                                                                                          |
| Guinea 0-9 Cameroon 2nd leg 29Sept.                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Algeria 0-5 Ghana - 2nd leg 29Sept.                                                                                                                                                                            |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Burundi walks over Rwanda and qualifies for second round without kicking a ball.                                                                                                                               |
| Tunisia lose by walkover to Sierra Leone - Sierra Leone qualifies for the second round without kicking a ball.                                                                                                 |

2018 FIFA U-20 WWC qualifiers: Some 1st-leg, 1st-round resultsDimanche, 17 Septembre 2017 17:05 - Mis à jour Dimanche, 17 Septembre 2017 17:07

FIN/INFOSPLUSGABON/PMN/GABON 2017

© Copyright Infosplusgabon